SHORT CIRCUIT SETS FIRE TRUCK AFIRE TUESDAY

Several hundred dollars worth of damage was done to a Gettysburg fire company pumper at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday night, when the wiring in a spotlight on top of the cab became short-circuited on the Lincoln highway about two miles east of Gettysburg.

The truck, a Chevrolet, purchased in 1940, was being used Tuesday night by members of the fire company's maintenance committee and was enroute back to the fire engine house on East Middle street after canvassing a section east of Gettysburg.

Those on the truck first thought that the brakes had caught fire. The truck was driven to the side of the highway near the home of William Gastley, when it was discovered that the roof of the cab was on fire.

Radio Was Usable

The short wave radio set could still be used, and aid was summoned from the engine house. A number of firemen who had been making a town canvass were at the engine house, and answered the call with another fire truck.

The burning vehicle was without equipment with which to fight its own fire. A rack which formerly carried ladders was removed several weeks ago, and the truck stripped of all its equipment preparatory to installing a new booster tank. It was scheduled to be taken to a garage today, and when the work was completed was to be used as an auxiliary vehicle so that the service truck, with its iron lung, respirator and other emergency equipment could be kept in the engine house for emergency calls.

Wedemeyer Says U.S. Advisors' Reports Favored Communists

Washington, June 13 (AP) — Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer told senators today his four State department advisors in China in 1944 and 1945 were "very critical" of the Chinese Nationalist government but made "favorable" reports on the Communists.

Wedemeyer, U.S. commanding general in China at the time, said the four advisors were John Davies, John Service, Raymond Ludden and John Emerson.

For the third day, Wedemeyer was in the witness chair at the Senate inquiry into the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur from his far eastern commands. Many of the questions concerned conditions and events in China as World War II came to an end.

Wedemeyer related that MacArthur, as Pacific commander, gave him an order against letting the Chinese Communists have any of the weapons taken from the Japanese who surrendered in China. He said the purpose was to see that the former Japanese arms went to Chiang Kai-shek's central Chinese government.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) raised the subject of the attitude of Wedemeyer's State department advisors toward the two Chinese factions of that time.

Service, one of the four advisors, was among the individual targets of the attacks last year by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) on the State department. McCarthy charged Red sympathizers had infiltrated the department. The Democratic majority of a Senate investigating committee held there was no basis for his charges, but McCarthy and some other Republicans called the majority report a "whitewash."

Hickenlooper asked Wedemeyer whether any of the four State department representatives had "an attitude which appeared to be one of undermining or disparagement of Chiang Kai-shek and the Nationalist government of China, coupled with an at least seeming support or advocacy of the Communist movement in northern China."

Wedemeyer replied that he had "received from those four gentlemen written memoranda and oral reports indicating or embodying disparagement against the central government."

Allies Are Chasing Thousands Of Beaten Reds North Of Iron Triangle In "Bouncing Battle"

Tokyo, June 13 (AP)—Thousands of beaten Reds streamed northward in Korea today as Allied task forces roamed unopposed over their abandoned "iron triangle."

Allied tanks and men spilled out over the flat lands north of Chorwon and Kumhwa. They made good advances toward Pyongyang, northernmost point of the triangle. But censors would not permit correspondents to mention the distances.

The big Red withdrawal was in the wild, rugged country east of the triangle. North Koreans sweated up the mountain trails in groups ranging from a few hundred to more than a thousand.

"Bouncing Battles"

Smaller Red forces covered the retreat. They slowed advancing U.N. infantrymen in "bouncing battles" over the ridges stretching north of the Hwachon reservoir eastward toward the Sea of Japan.

The fifth Air Force sent nearly a third of the 535 flights mounted Wednesday skimming over these ridges. The pilots burned the Reds out with fire bombs and blasted them with explosives.

Largest engagement reported Wednesday was fought by South Koreans moving up the east coast north of Kamsong against an estimated 1,000 Reds. On the west flank patrols stabbed across the Imjin river, probing Chinese strength.

U.N. officers said the only significant action was the Red flight behind the cover of mountain-top defenses.

The mountain warfare followed a uniform pattern, bouncing from ridge to ridge.

Fight, Delay, Fight

United Nations forces attacked. North Koreans, entrenched on hill-tops and supported by artillery and mortar fire, halted them. U.N. air strikes and artillery then blasted the Reds. Communists pulled back to the next ridge.

There the same performance was repeated.

GIs gave this type of warfare the name: "bouncing battle."

The ridge climbers drove forward to straighten out the Allied battle-line. Their immediate objective was to catch up with spearheads probing through the shattered Red "iron triangle," 20 miles north of the 38th Parallel on the western front.

While U.N. patrols uncovered more abandoned stockpiles at the base of the triangle, warplanes hammered at Red efforts to drag equipment out of the top.

Destroy Ammunition

Tank-led forces fanned out three miles and more beyond the front lines around Chorwon and Kumhwa, former anchors of the road hub area. They found and blew up 4,000 rounds of Chinese artillery and mortar shells near Kumhwa. Another large cache was demolished near Chorwon.

Patrols smacked into entrenched Chinese each side of the triangle. They blocked the roads toward Kumsong, new Chinese base to the east. They fought probing efforts toward the Imjin on the west, beyond which Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet said the Reds "would be in a fairly secure position."

Moose vs. G. L. Bream Garage.

A two-way deadlock for first place in the Softball league now exists as the result of games played Tuesday evening. Good weather this evening would probably result in the largest crowd of the season as the top teams, the Moose and Glenn L. Bream garage, are listed to meet in the second game.

Another pair of one-run decisions developed Tuesday, the Elks halting the Moose in the opener 6-5 in an extra inning while the Bream garage team eked out a 5-4 win over the Stanton Legion in the nightcap.

The Elks got off to a fast start in the first inning only to have the Moose take a 5-4 margin in the fifth with three tallies. In the seventh the Elks knotted the count with a run and then added the winning tally in the extra frame. The Moose put two men on base in their final try but could not score. Ross Sachs and "Reds" Tawney pitched fine ball all the way.

A four-run uprising in the sixth inning enabled the scrappy Stanton Legion team to tie the score at 4-4 with the Bream nine but the garage-men pushed over a run in their half to gain the verdict. George Fair sparked his team to victory with three runs.

CHISOX BEAT WASHINGTON AS YANKS LOSE

(By RALPH RODEN)

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Until now, Lou Kretlow's chief claim to fame was:

1. He received a $35,000 bonus to sign with Detroit in 1946.
2. He was shipped to St. Louis along with $100,000 by Detroit for Jerry Priddy in 1949.

Lanky Lou has blossomed into a winning pitcher for the amazing Chicago White Sox. The Sox picked him up for a song from the Browns last year. The coming of Kretlow into his own is just another feather in the cap of Freshman Manager Paul Richards, renowned as a handler of pitchers.

Browns Upset Yanks

Kretlow, who failed as a starter early in the season, faced Washington last night as the Sox opened their second tour of the east. Lou came through with the first shut-out of his major league career—a brilliant 3-0, four-hit job.

The victory enabled the Sox, winner of seven straight the last time they visited the east, to boost their lead to 3½ games over the runner-up New York Yankees. The Yanks were upset, 5-1, by the lowly St. Louis Browns.

Duane Pillette, exiled to the Browns a year ago, came back and haunted the Yanks at the stadium. The slim righthander stopped the Bombers on four scratch hits. The Browns collected only five off Fred Sanford and three relief pitchers but made the most of ten walks. The Browns wrapped it up in the seventh when Tommy Byrne forced home two runs with bases on balls.

Indians Move Up

The Cleveland Indians moved to within a game of the third place Boston Red Sox, outlasting the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-6, in a night game at Philadelphia. The Red Sox dropped a 7-3 decision to the Detroit Tigers under the flood lights at Boston.

Cleveland's Bob Feller, with help in the ninth from Lou Brissie and Mike Garcia, gained credit for his ninth victory. The A's rallied in the ninth, pushing one run home and placing the potential tying runs on base. Garcia stopped the threat by getting Gus Zernial to fly out.

Phillies Beat Cubs

Roe turned in his ninth victory without a loss as he pitched the pace-setting Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-2 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Home runs by Jackie Robinson and Gil Hodges gave Roe

Trojan Cage Star Held For Burglary

Arraigned Monday afternoon on a charge of burglary, Robert (Bob) Read, 17, Chambersburg, was ordered committed to the Franklin county jail in default of $1,500 bond to wait the next term of court. The charge had been filed by Chambersburg borough police before Justice of the Peace A. H. Stains, of Hamilton township.

Accused of forcing his way into the colored American Legion post home at Loudon and Queen streets, Chambersburg, on the morning of June 4 and stealing a sum of money, Read was taken into custody Monday morning at Letterkenny Ordnance Depot where he had secured summer employment with a construction firm.

Read, prominent Chambersburg high school athlete, was quoted by Mr. Stains as saying he broke into the Legion post home because he needed money. The young athlete, Mr. Stains added, explained, "I was tired living off my mother."

Yesterday's Stars

an early margin and he remained in front the rest of the way. Hodges' homer was his 19th. Stan Musial of the Cards went four for four to take over the circuit's batting lead from Robinson, 380 to 375.

The Giants whipped the Reds, 6-3, in ten innings at Cincinnati. The victory moved the New Yorkers from fourth to second place, six games behind the Dodgers. The Reds dropped into a third place tie with the Cardinals. Monte Irvin broke up the game with a three-run homer in the tenth off Ken Raf-fensberger.

Johnny Sain coasted to his fourth victory of the season as the Boston Braves humbled the Pittsburgh Pirates, 13-3. The Braves pounded out 15 hits and scored in all but one inning.

The Philadelphia Phillies came from behind and beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-5. The Phil spotted the Cubs leads of 4-0 and 5-2. They wiped out the deficit with four runs in the fifth. Dick Sisler featured the rally with a two-run single.

Milo Candini was the winner but Jim Konstanty saved the game by pitching one-hit ball over the final five innings.

4 TEAMS WILL CANCEL GAMES WITH PENN 11

New York, June 13 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania, long a power in eastern football circles, today faces the possibility of a curtailed 1951 gridiron schedule.

Four of its traditional rivals—Cornell, Princeton, Columbia and Dartmouth—informed Pennsylvania athletic officials yesterday they would cancel their scheduled games at Franklin Field if Penn insists on defying the National Collegiate Athletic association's television directive.

Penn started all of the furore last week by announcing it would televise its eight home games. The action was in violation of an NCAA plan to restrict televising of college football games in an experiment to determine what effect TV has on attendance.

The Philadelphia school, taking the stand the NCAA program was in violation of Anti-Trust laws, suggested the matter be tossed into the lap of the Department of Justice for final decision.

Claims "Sound" View

But Dr. Hugh C. Willett, president of the NCAA, said "no" in a 150-word telegram sent to the University of Pennsylvania yesterday.

Dr. Willett, also athletic director of the University of Southern California, pointed out counsel for the NCAA had been in touch with the attorney general's office as to the legality of the program.

"Inasmuch as we are convinced of the soundness of our position we see no point in another approach to the Justice Department on the matter of the legality of our NCAA television plan."

Dr. Willett said in his wire to Franny Murray, director of Penn athletics.

Murray, in Marietta, Ohio, for Saturday's intercollegiate rowing regatta, declined to comment but a university spokesman in Philadelphia said:

"We are still hopeful the dispute can be ironed out but we are going ahead with our television plans. Much can happen between June and September. So far, nobody has officially cancelled anything. We still have a schedule and we still have a television contract."

Princeton, Columbia and Dartmouth emphatically said in letters to Murray they want no part of the Red and Blue on the gridiron if Penn persists in televising its home games.

Cornell was not quite so definite but athletic director Bob Kane said the traditional game would be jeopardized if Penn continues to defy

Mrs. Herr Takes Handicap Tourney

Mrs. Rogers Herr won the handicap tournament conducted by the ladies at the Gettysburg Country club Tuesday. She had a net score of 35. Mrs. J. Donald Swope was second with a net 36 and Mrs. Gordon Webster was third with a net 40. A special prize was awarded to Mrs. Herr.

Miss Mary Bilheimer, Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Swope tied with 37s in the 18-hole putting contest.

Mrs. Barton H. Poth was hostess for the day. Twelve women participated.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)

The Lancaster Red Roses, battling to take over first place in the Interstate league, swamped the Salisbury Athletics 19 to 0 last night.

Despite the victory the Roses remained a half game behind the Hagerstown Braves, who blanked the Harrisburg Senators 3 to 0.

Lancaster's righthander, Charley Kobinski, had a no-hitter going into the ninth inning. Then the first man he faced rapped out a single for the only hit the tailend A's could eke out all evening.

The Roses' giddy traffic on the base lines owed as much to the A's befuddling fielding as to their feeble pitching. Seven errors were charged to the losers. Lancaster's biggest romp was in the second inning when seven runs streaked across.

Yields Three Hits

In shutting out the Senators, Andy Bush yielded but three hits, struck out nine men and walked none. The slick performance was his ninth victory of the season.

The Sunbury Giants got tight five-hit hurling from stalwart Rudy Yandoli and a four-run burst of power in the fifth inning to defeat the York White Roses 5 to 1.

The Wilmington Blue Rocks and Allentown Cardinals split a doubleheader, Wilmington taking the opener 7 to 4 and then losing 6 to 4 in 10 innings. A home run by Bob Comiskey, with one man on base, gave Allentown the even break. Doug Clark, who relieved Bob Bills in the ninth inning, was the winner. John Walz notched his tenth victory for Wilmington in the first game.

the NCAA

That leaves Penn with California, Army, Navy and William and Mary at home and Wisconsin at Madison, Wis., in the only away game for Coach George Munger's team.

Army, William and Mary, Wisconsin and Navy have said they would go through with their scheduled games. But Navy indicated it might be different when the time came to arranging for future contests.

California is on the fence but leaning towards compliance with the NCAA.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Birmingham, Mich., June 13 (AP)—

Jim Standish, the United States Golf association president, returned from a trip to Britain with the Walker Cup team just in time to listen to the means of the pros who don't like the traps at Oakland Hills, the site of the 1951 open. . . . And it isn't surprising that Standish isn't listening very carefully.

"There's nothing in this country like the British seaside links," he said. "They're all old and they use the natural layout of the ground and the sand dunes. . . . The first time you look at the old course at St. Andrews, you think its awful. But after you play it a few times, you come to like it. . . . I read somewhere that bunkers originally were evolved from the places where the sheep used to huddle and dig into the sand

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
YES AND NO

These two words—Yes and No—probably have more to do in the influencing of our lives than any other two words in all our language. The use of either one of them calls for a decision, and on that decision rests whatever transpires because of the decision made.

The use of that simple Yes or No has often been the turning point in many a life. Hardly a day passes that we are not called upon to make a decision one way or the other. Their meanings are so far apart that it is well to give great consideration to the use of either one. Great care must be used in the compromising of either one.

There are habitual Yesers and Noers! People who agree with everyone and everything and those who oppose everything and everyone, regardless of the proposition, question or occasion. We have an example of the habitual use of the No by Russia in the deliberation of the United Nations organization, regardless of the merit of the proposition presented. We know there must be a meeting ground among so many different nations and that compromises are essential, but not utter opposition all along the line by one power.

We all know people who are for anything offered. We also know those who oppose everything without reason, even before the facts are stated on which a Yes or No depends. I once knew a man who, apparently, could not say Yes to anything. Whatever you brought to his mind he at once said "No." He was "agin" everything! Gracian, the Spanish philosopher, once wrote that "a gilded No is more satisfactory than a dry Yes."

Courage is essential to the use of either one of these Yes and No words. It often takes courage to say No and also to say Yes. In most cases, however, one's character is asserted, and the decision to say one or the other is made without regret. We can be pleasant about either decision, for later we may be called upon to reverse the Yes or No given. None of us can always be right or always wrong! Smile when you say either.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Little Things."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
LITTLE MAN, BIG MANThe little man will flatter when
He needs the aid of other men,
And very gracious he will be
To all more powerful than he.
But selfish, arrogant and vain
The humble toiler he'll disdain;
His eyes to his example shut:
True greatness never needs to strut.The big man always thoughtful stays
Is glad to cheer and quick to praise.
He has no fears with sham to hide,
For old and young he'll step aside.
His smile will fellowship reflect.
He'll grant to all what he'd expect.If it had been the whim of fate
To leave him small instead of great.

Can you beat this measure of car value?

Of standard-built cars used as taxicabs, there are far more Plymouths than any other make...in fact, there are more Plymouths than all other makes combined!

Those who own taxicabs are experts on car value. They have to be! Their very living depends on their judgment in selecting the right car.

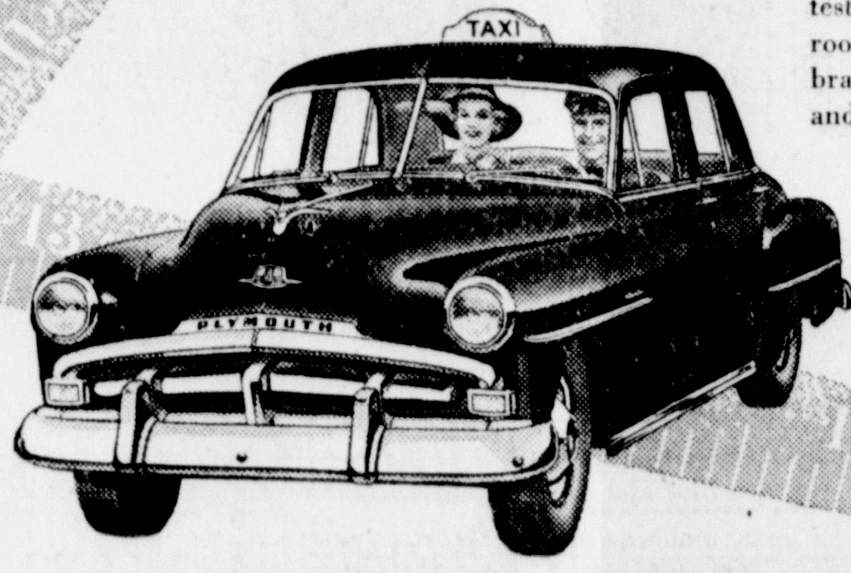

This selection is not made on "hunch" or "sentiment" or loyalty to any make.

In the cold light of fact, taxicab owners test all makes of cars for everything—roominess, riding comfort, handling ease, braking action, maintenance cost, day-and-night dependability—everything!

As the result of these continuous tests, the overwhelming majority of taxicab owners say: "The car for our money is Plymouth!"

Isn't this pretty convincing proof that Plymouth is the car for your money, too? But you don't have to take somebody else's word for it. Your Plymouth dealer will gladly arrange a demonstration now. Then you can put the Plymouth through your own tests and see for yourself.

Green Pea Acreage Boosted This Year

Doing their share in growing more vegetables to be canned or frozen this season as an aid to meeting emergency food requirements, truck growers of Pennsylvania have increased their green pea acreage by six per cent over last year, the state Department of Agriculture announced.

The planted acreage for green peas for processing this year in Pennsylvania is reported at 14,300 acres following a federal-state survey. This compares with 13,500 acres last year and the 1940-49 average of 14,540 acres, the department said. The smooth, round type of green pea has been planted on 4,290 acres and the remaining 10,010 acres are growing the sweet wrinkled type, the survey revealed.

Planting of green peas for canning and freezing was completed in Pennsylvania during the first half of May. Growing conditions have been satisfactory in most areas.

Cultivate Strawberries — Cultivate the newly set strawberries frequently to promote growth, kill weeds, and encourage prompt rooting of runners, urges Carl Bittner, Penn State extension fruit specialist.

Pa. Poultrymen To Meet Next Week

All phases of Pennsylvania's expanding poultry industry are listed for discussions at the annual convention of the State Poultry Federation on June 20-22 at the Pennsylvania State college. Four directors-at-large and directors from three districts will be elected as part of the business sessions where Leslie S. Hubbard, Lancaster, president, will be in charge.

Although college personnel appear on every session, most of the speakers and discussion leaders come direct from the industry. Guest speakers include: H. H. Alp, director of commodity departments of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Dr. Henry VanRoekel, from the University of Massachusetts; Dr. F. B. Hutt, of Cornell university; and E. J. Gillespie, director of meat merchandising for the A & P food stores.

As an innovation on the convention program, a chicken barbecue is scheduled for Thursday, using a newly constructed pit at the college poultry farm.

Green Pastures Contest Planned

Plans for the fourth annual Green Pastures contest sponsored by the Adams County Production and Marketing Administration were announced today by the county committee.

Farmers who have good pastures were asked to enter the contest by obtaining entrance blanks from any of the committeemen throughout the county, or by contacting the PMA office on North Washington street. June 30 will be the deadline.

Inspection of the pastures by the judges will be completed by August 6, Martin T. Walter, chairman of the PMA committee, said. The names of the judges will be announced soon. Pastures will be judged on the nature of the pastures, the manner in which they are handled, and the program carried out for their maintenance and improvement. The county pasture judged best will be entered in a section contest, the winner of which will take part in the state event.

VISITING DAYS AT PENN STATE

Experimental work on new methods of weed control and tests of field crops will feature the monthly Visiting Days at the School of Agriculture of the Pennsylvania State college on June 19, 20. Special features are planned for each month during the summer. J. K. Thornton, committee chairman, announced.

Increased interest in chemical control of weeds, with many new formulations available, prompted this feature for the June Visiting Days. Special plots have been sprayed and treated in a series of concentrations and methods to illustrate results with various crops. Research workers in charge of the experimental work will be on hand to describe the test plots to visitors.

Grassland, livestock, and field crops will share the spotlight with weed control on these two dates. Widespread attention being given the production of quality forage crops has sparked a definite trend toward more grassland farming in the state, as evidenced by crowds attending the recent series of grassland field days. Management studies on the forage varieties and combinations will feature the Visiting Days programs.

Through cooperation of the School of Home Economics, special items of interest to homemakers have been made available for both dates for women accompanying the men on visiting days. Tours of points of interest on the campus are available also.

Dates of the visiting days for the next two months are: July 10 and 11; and August 9 and 10. Guides will be available to accompany organized groups to the many features of interest on these dates.

Give Cows Good Care — Three essentials are needed by dairy cows if they are to produce well during the summer. R. H. Olmstead, extension dairy specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, suggests an abundance of high-quality feed that can be eaten within a short time, a shady cool place to lie down, and a good supply of fresh water.

Pa. Poultry Industry Tops '50 Production

Pennsylvania farmers are getting ready to hold their high rank in chicken and egg production again this year, the state Department of Agriculture reported following federal-state surveys of hatchery production for the month of April.

While poultrymen were culling out their low-producing hens last month they were buying large numbers of chicks to raise as flock replacements. At the same time interest in chicks for broiler and fryer production continued strong, the survey disclosed.

Demand on Pennsylvania hatcheries ran total chick production for April to 11,450,000 or three per cent above March and 12 per cent above the output of 10,250,000 for April, 1950. National output at 319,436,000 chicks was 12 per cent above April of last year.

FARM CALENDAR

Sheep Available — Pennsylvania sheepmen are looking forward to the Keystone Stud Ram and Ewe sale to be held in the small arena of the Farm show building at Harrisburg on July 11. James A. Christian, livestock extension specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, says 161 head have already been consigned to the sale by 53 breeders.

Protect The Cow — The vacuum of the milking machine can be harmful to the cow unless she is properly prepared. This is one reason why Ivan E. Parkin, extension dairy specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, is a strong advocate of the managed milking routine. Letdown of milk is assured before the machine is attached.

Hedges Are Popular — Flowering hedges are becoming more popular each year. A. O. Rasmussen, extension ornamental horticulturist of the Pennsylvania State college, names spiraea, deutzias, forsythias, and Regal's privet as good examples. He also suggests a new type of hedge known as the dwarf corkscrew for use as a lower hedge.

Control Flea Beetles — A one per cent rotenone dust may be used to control flea beetles on vegetable leaves to be used as greens or on other edible portions of vegetables to be used within 30 days, reminds Stanley Gessell, Penn State extension entomologist.

Grow Chicks Outdoors — Where the facilities are available, F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist, believes in getting the chicks outdoors early. He recommends a dense sod for the chicks to run on, and says they will get a lot of feed from it.

Use Tender Squash — For best advantage, summer squash should be used when young and tender, reminds James O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable specialist. Pick when the rind is soft and before the seeds begin to fill.

Littlestown ANNUAL EVENT HELD BY IOOF

Approximately 125 were in attendance at the Ladies' night program presented on Monday evening by Sylvania lodge No. 613, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in the P.O.S. of A. hall, East King street. Prior to this program the annual memorial service was held at Mount Carmel cemetery. The members placed flowers upon the graves of the deceased brothers, followed with the invocation given by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed church, near town. Remarks were made by Edward P. Hawk, chairman of the program committee. The memorial address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Koons. He told the group that "we have but one life to live and we should make that one worthwhile." The group sang "Nearer My God To Thee," led by Stanley M. Staub, after which the names of the deceased members were read. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Koons and taps were played by Gerald W. Daley and Noah V. Brown. Following the service a brief period was set aside for the regular lodge meeting.

The Ladies' night program opened with the group singing "America," accompanied on the piano by Miss Shirley M. Hawk. The Rev. Mr. Koons gave the invocation. Welcome was extended to the members and their guests by Edward P. Hawk, followed with a piano solo, "Nola," played by Miss Hawk. The Rev. Mr. Koons addressed the group on the subject of Christian brotherhood and closed his talk by relating the act of the Good Samaritan. Miss Hawk then played another piano solo, "Blue Moon," after which she accompanied the group for the singing of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Koons. Assisting Mr. Hawk on the program committee were Charles L. Ruffe and Richard Stultz.

A social hour followed, during which time the annual strawberry and ice cream treat was served. The refreshment committee comprised Harry T. Harner, chairman, Elmer Miller and Melvin A. Miller.

DYERS TO CLOSE

A program will be presented by the children of the Daily Vacation Bible school, at the closing session on Friday morning at 10 o'clock in Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church. Parents and friends are invited to attend the program.

The June meeting of Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion Auxiliary, will be held this evening at the post home, East King street. The program and refreshment committee is composed of Mrs. Elmer W. Gall, Mrs. Lloyd Baker and Mrs. Wayne Arnold.

Mrs. Elmer E. Furlow, Littlestown R. 2, will be hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist church, at the regular monthly meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A parcel post sale will be held in conjunction with the meeting.

FATHER KICKS BABY TO DEATH

Erie, Pa., June 13 (AP) — A county detective reported Tuesday that a oldest Sunday school who are participating in the Children's Day program, to be presented Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, will have rehearsal on Thursday and Friday morning at 11 o'clock, immediately following the Bible school sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Straley, Shippensburg, announce the birth of a daughter, weighing eight pounds and four ounces, born Sunday morning at the Chambersburg city hospital. Mr. Straley was formerly of near town, and Mrs. Straley was Margaret Heller of Shippensburg.

Miss Mary Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, and Miss Barbara Crouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nevaeh A. Crouse, East King street, left on Monday morning to spend some time at Camp Nawakwa, near Arendtsville.

young father confessed fatally kicking his 15-month old daughter in a fit of anger because he had trouble setting up a new stove.

Detective John Coates said Charles Huffman, 22, unemployed resident of nearby Corry, signed a statement he kicked little Joyce Marie Huffman in the stomach when she crawled into the kitchen while he was working.

The baby died May 28 in a Corry hospital. An autopsy blamed her death on blood poisoning resulting from a punctured bowel.

Coates filed a murder charge against Huffman yesterday before Alderman M. S. Cobbett in Corry.

POWER- PACKED

-and then some!

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

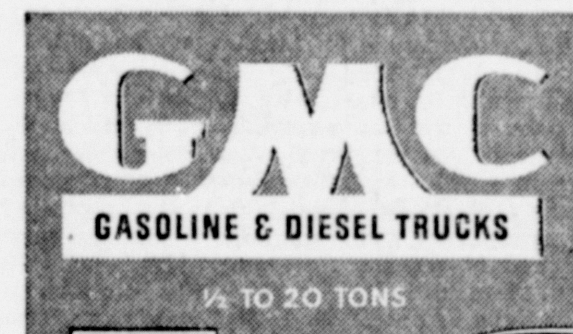

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered 1/2- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go!"

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchron-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle. And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through a GMC's broad-shouldered frame!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's come in the widest range of engine-body-chassis combinations to fit any trucking need. The prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

MINISTER'S WIFE TELLS HOW HADACOL WAS SO HELPFUL

HADACOL Helps Folks With Weak, Run-Down Conditions, Poor Appetite, When Caused by Deficiencies of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Niacin and Iron

A week, run-down condition can make life mighty drab for folks who feel that way. Imagine not having a good appetite. Loss of weight and energy oftentimes accompany this condition. When Mrs. Ardena Longaker, a minister's wife, who lives at Rt. 5, Meadowbrook Rd., North Kansas City, Mo., began feeling that way she began taking HADACOL for she had heard how it was helping people with weak, run-down conditions and poor appetite, when due to a deficiency of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Niacin and Iron. Now Mrs. Longaker says she feels good and is recommending HADACOL to her friends.

Here is what she says: "I am a minister's wife and am 39 years old. I was run-down, lost weight, was listless, and had no appetite at all. I'm on my fifth bottle now and am amazed at the results. I want to eat all the time now. Most of all, I'm glad to say, I've gained several pounds. HADACOL is so economical, I believe almost anyone can afford it, and I do recommend it to my friends."

HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the REAL CAUSE of weak, run-down conditions, stomach distress, nervousness, poor appetite and nagging aches and pains when due to the lack of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Niacin and Iron in the system. AND LISTEN TO THIS! Continued use of this great HADACOL not only gives continuous complete relief but helps keep such painful distress from returning when caused by such deficiencies. Now that's the kind of product you have been wanting for. That's the kind you should buy and start taking at once.

And HADACOL's wonderful Vitamins and Minerals come in special pleasant liquid form so they are quickly absorbed and assimilated in the blood, ready to go to work at once.

HADACOL IS SO EFFECTIVE
Because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ and to every part of your body.

Mrs. Longaker
